

Policy 71-00 President Emergency Succession Plan

Sponsor: District Governing Board

Policy

If the College President is unable to perform his or her duties due to death, disability, or illness, the District Governing Board shall recognize a College Vice President as the immediate acting President.

The Board will then hold a meeting to appoint an Interim President. The Interim President shall perform executive functions for up to one year or until the President is able to resume his other duties or a new President is selected.
