

Policy 92-00 Retreat
Sponsor: District Governing Board

Policy

The District Governing Board recognizes the importance of Board members engaging in educational and assessment opportunities to reflect on Board practices and progress.

To this end, the Board may hold an annual retreat to consider accomplishments, challenges, and goals. Themes and topics for the retreat shall be developed by the Board and presented to the Chair and President for implementation. The retreat will be funded as budget allows and shall be held in compliance with Arizona's Open Meeting Law.
